Depending on the amount of merchandise we receive, your items may not go on the floor the same day we get them. It may take a few days if we are really busy.

A handling fee is added to the price of every item we keep. We determine the price of an item, then add the handling fee to create the sale price which is listed on the sale tag. This fee may change without notice.

We try to go through your items as quickly as possible. We may not notice a stain, broken zipper, hole, etc. the first time we go through your items. If we find a flaw while marking, tagging or hanging an item, we will donate the item without notice. If the item is higher end, we will save the item till the next time you come in. ($20 or more)
